HISTORICAL PERIODS & TRANS-CONTINENTAL ROUTING OVERVIEW

This master chronicle spans over 14 centuries of continuous family migration, structured across four foundational eras: 1. The Holy Household Era (Medina & Baghdad): Formulating the primary lineage roots down through the early historical Imams. 2. The Persian & Khurasan Enclaves: Shifting eastward near the spiritual and cultural nodes of Merv and Mashhad. 3. The Subcontinent Migration Path: Crossing into South Asia led by the migrant ancestor, Syed Qasim Mashhadi. 4. The Punjabi Consolidation and Administrative Registries: Securing land tenure, registering lineages under British Settlement guidelines, and anchoring the modern branch firmly within Chaki Shah Jee, Talagang.
